WILSON TO FIGHT HARMON ON HIS UNIT RULE CLAIM

Ohio Democratic Convention Forces Ready for Hot Time Over the Delegates.

TOLEDO, June 4 .- Gov. Judson Haron faces a bitter fight on the adoption of the unit rule in the Ohio Democratic State Convention, which is to meet for organization this evening and adjourn until to-morrow, when all delegates-atlarge to the Baltimore Convention will be elected and a State ticket nominated.

His friends insist that he is entitled to the undivided votes of the State's forty-eight delogates in the National Democratic Convention for the reason that he defeated Woodrow Wilson in the recent preference primary for President by a plurality of nearly 11,000 and are prepared to make a determined fight for the adoption of the unit rule. In ddition to this they point to his record "favorite son" argument.

The Wilson forces have nineteen o he forty-two district delegates and inelet that inasmuch as they were elected at a direct primary they should not be md by instructions for Harmon under the unit rule.

Moore, campaign manager for Gov. Sarmon, is standing firm in his de-nand that the State Convention shall adopt the unit rule and give Ohio's eight votes at Baltimore to Har-He declares that 620 of the 952 ates will vote to support his con-

MEN'S SUITS FOR WARM WEATHER

Macy's ready-to-wear clothes are the best obtainable. Priced 10% to 20% lower than similar qualities elsewhere.

The making of Summer suits is a crucial test of the tailor. Every ounce of weight in the suit must justify its presence by its needfulness.

In Macy suits not an ounce of superfluous weight is added. The tailoring takes care of that important feature. Macy's suits are not heavily backed up with canvas. And yet they will retain their shape without frequent pressing. This is rarely true of any suits except those that are the product of the most expensive tailors. Light Flannels and Homespuns

WILTON RUGS, $24.74

Size 9x12 feet. Price elsewhere, $50.00

We will place on sale to-morrow fifty Wilton Rugs at less than half the price they were made to sell for, and at less than the actual cost of weaving them.

In appearance and texture these coverings are the counterpart of the famous Hartford Saxony Rug. They have all the attributes of that expensive covering, including the high pile surface, which means high point service, softness of weave and light colorings.

There is only one pattern of the rug. This is Oriental in design. The groundwork is tan. A medallion, woven in green and red and touched with blue, is the central figure of the rug.

There were only a hundred of these rugs made by the manufacturer because it was found that the cost of making them was prohibitive. Of these one hundred we obtained fifty. We cannot secure any more when these fifty are gone. We therefore advise early purchasing.
